

Art in General Travels to The Istanbul Biennial September 10 – 16, 2009

Join Art in General this fall on its trip to the 11th Istanbul Biennial. Entitled "What Keeps Mankind Alive?" and curated by What, How & for Whom, a non-profit organization for visual culture and curators' collective formed in 1999 and based in Zagreb, Croatia, the Biennial and this trip are not to be missed!

Travel Package*

$3,500 Per Person Package Includes:

- Double occupancy Accommodations for five nights**
- VIP attendance at opening night Biennial festivities and curator-led walkthroughs
- Visits to attractions such as the Blue Mosque, the Hippodrome, the Grand Bazaar, the Spice Market, Topkapi Palace, underground Basilica Cistern and many more!
- Day trip to Cappadocia, a region featuring spectacular homes and monasteries carved into rock formations
- Visits to the Platform Garanti Contemporary Art Center, SantralIstanbul, the Istanbul Contemporary Art Museum, galleries and artists' studios
- Complimentary Insiders membership to Art in General

* Prices are subject to change.

** For single occupancy accommodations, please add $750 to travel package.

Not included in this Travel Package:

- Roundtrip Airfare between U.S. and Turkey
- Travel insurance
- Personal items and expenses
- Room upgrades and incidentals

For more information, or to reserve your place on the trip please contact Anna Starling at 212-219-0473, ext. 25, or anna@artingeneral.org.

Space is limited. A non-refundable deposit of $700 per person is due upon reservation and full payment due by June 10, 2009.